CVFD Right to Cancel

CVFD may cancel a class if the minimum number of students is not met 5 calendar days prior to first day of class. In this event, there will be no charges to any student. The class may be rescheduled (with first priority to those enrolled) or canceled completely.

Your Right to Cancel

You may cancel your registration up to calendar 31 days before the first day of class. In this event, you will not be charged anything.

Within the 30 calendar days prior to the first day of class, you will be enrolled and may not cancel except under two circumstances.

1. You can find a replacement to fill your spot. In this event, you and your replacement will be responsible for making all the arrangements with regards to payment to CVFD.

2. Assuming there is a waitlist, a person on the wait list is willing to take your spot and pays the registration fee. You will then be refunded the course registration fee, minus any 3rd party transaction fees from Paypal.
