

Members of the Chula Vista Technology and Privacy Advisory Task Force

Art Pacheco is Vice President of Engineering for FICO and has over 24 years of experience with technology firms focused on the financial services market. Pacheco also serves on the Board of Advisors for the Jackie Robinson YMCA and has volunteered with Big Brothers and Big Sisters of San Diego County and Los Hermanos de Stanford. Pacheco is a Chula Vista resident (Council District 1).

Candice Custodio-Tan is executive director of Asian Solidarity Collective and director of organizing and campaigns for the Partnership for the Advancement of New Americans (PANA). Custodio-Tan also serves as a member of the Human Relations Commission of the City of Chula Vista and volunteers as a member of the Special Education Parent Committee of the Chula Vista Elementary School District. Custodio-Tan is a Chula Vista resident (Council District 1).

Carlos De La Toba is a retired federal law enforcement officer. Among other duties, De La Toba was responsible for developing policy and training probation personnel on the proper use of and access to sensitive personal information, court records, and criminal records. De La Toba is also a U.S. Army veteran and former military police officer. De La Toba is a Chula Vista resident (Council District 1).

Charles Walker is a retired database administrator and information technology consultant with 30 years of experience, including consulting roles with the City of San Diego, San Diego Police Department, SANDAG, and other local government agencies. Walker is a Chula Vista resident (Council District 1).

Rafal Jankowski is an invasive cardiology field engineer team leader at GE Healthcare and has over 25 years of experience in information technology and information security, including a master of science degree in IT management. Jankowski is a member of the Biomedical Engineering Society and a member of the Project Management Institute San Diego Chapter. Jankowski is a Chula Vista resident (Council District 1).

Lucia Napolez is a digital marketing professional who is currently pursuing further education as a student at Southwestern College. Napolez has been involved in organizations such as the Alliance of Californians for Community Empowerment (ACCE), San Diego LGBTQ+ Latinx Coalition, and the San Diego Leadership Alliance (SDLA). Napolez is a Chula Vista resident (Council District 2).

Maria Whitehorse is a social services worker with the County of San Diego with over 15 years of experience. Whitehorse is the founder and president of the Native American Employee Resource Group at the County of San Diego and also serves as a board member on several nonprofit committees. Whitehorse is also working on obtaining a law degree. Whitehorse is a Chula Vista resident (Council District 2).

Patricia Ruiz is a research scientist focused on artificial intelligence and machine learning at Digital Promise Global, a non-profit organization that seeks to accelerate innovation in education. Prior to joining Digital Promise, Ruiz spent 16 years as a teacher and administrator at the middle school and high school levels and earned a doctorate in learning technologies from Pepperdine University. Ruiz is a Chula Vista resident (Council District 2).

Sophia Rodriguez is a human services specialist with the County of San Diego and an active member of SEIU Local 221. Rodriguez is a lifelong resident of Chula Vista and an alumna of Chula Vista High School and UC San Diego. Rodriguez is a Chula Vista resident (Council District 3).

Mae Case (she/her) is a program associate with PATH (People Assisting the Homeless) and also chairs the DEI (diversity, equity, and inclusion) committee at PATH. Case is also an organizer with the Asian Solidarity Collective and has been involved in community-led efforts such as the South Bay Collective for Fair Representation and Team Justice Coalition. Case is a Chula Vista resident (District 3).

Pedro Rios is program director of the American Friends Service Committee, a non-profit organization focused on defending the civil and human rights of migrants and border community members. Rios is also involved with the San Diego Immigrant Rights Consortium and Southern Border Communities Coalition. Rios is a Chula Vista resident (Council District 4).

Dominic LiMandri is district manager for the Third Avenue Village Association, a 501(c)(6) public benefit corporation established to oversee and expedite the revitalization and beautification of Chula Vista's original neighborhood. The association represents the property owners and businesses of Downtown Chula Vista. LiMandri is a San Diego resident.