

George Allen May (1922 – 1945)

The family of George May lived at 530 Flower Street in Chula Vista, CA. His wife is listed as Mrs. Gwendolyn May.

George May was born on March 6, 1922. The 1930 Census does show a “George A May”, born in California in 1922 and living in Lemon Grove, San Diego County with his stepfather, Clyde V. Hightower and mother Mary.

He was a First Chief Boatswain Mate in the United States Navy. He died on December 29, 1945, and is buried at the Fort Rosecrans National Cemetery. The location of his gravesite is Plot G 732

He was awarded the Purple Heart. The Montecito Ridge housing subdivision of Otay Ranch development honors his name with a street named in his honor.

